

2009-11-14 Buoy Ball

A bright spot in the gray days...

The Buoy Ball is Back!!! The Buoy Ball is the thing you DON'T want to miss in November!!! Consider this - where can you go to dance the night away with your friends? WHERE can you go and vie for a chance to win fabulous raffle prizes?? Where can you go dressed up in your favorite dancing dress and/or suit and/or rain pants??? Where can you go to help support the arts in while having more fun than should be legal??? The Buoy Ball!!! Mark your calendar for November 14th, 7:30pm-11pm at the

Ketchikan

Ted
Ferry
Civic Center.

Dance classes taught by Jerry
Pierce on

November 11th and by Juneau Guest Clinician Pat Belec on November 13th at the Main Street Gallery. We'll have two each night, one from 5:30-7:00pm, and from 7:30pm-9:00pm. PLUS a "Just in Time" dance class immediately prior to the Buoy Ball at Ted Ferry from 6:00-7:00pm. Classes are $10 each, or $15 for two on the same night.

Dancing, Drinking and Fun to be had by all!!! It's going to be a ball! Call the Arts council for tickets and more information. (What could make us use this many exclamation points but an event like the Buoy Ball???)

Call the Arts Council at 225-2211 for tickets and info.

Tickets are $25 at the door, $20 with your Torch Nights Season.

No-host bar, must be 21 and over
